

Buena Vista 4-H presents:

LEADERSHIP AND TEAMWORK WORKSHOP FOR 4-H MEMBERS

- ✓ Develop your youth leadership and teamwork skills
- ✓ Find out what it takes to build a successful team hands-on activities
- ✓ Learn real skills to help in your club and school

There will be two sessions of hands-on activities and lessons designed to assist 4-H members in learning what factors contribute to success, the importance of trust, communication, and feedback to leadership, and ways to create high performing teams. Sessions are guided by Rod Nuebert, an active 4-H alumni, in hands on and engaging ways. The focus is to build skills and methods that may compliment the 4-H experiential learning. Youth will take these skills back to their 4-H club to improve meetings & projects. Members of all ages encouraged to attend. This takes place in both an outdoor and indoor setting - dress accordingly. Members to bring water and a snack.

Parents and adults leaders may attend to observe! Lunch available. RSVP required. Members may attend one or both sessions.
