President's Report:

Tim Lewis announced that the Council's Fundraising Feasibility committee needs to set up more meeting dates. He also shared that San Benancio borrowed the council's photobooth for their pancake breakfast and that all clubs and committees are free to use the photo booth for their functions.

Food Booth Update: JoAnne Etchison and Sheryl Jones announced the results of the food booth profits and contests. Buena Vista won the poster contest, Lockwood contributed the most monetary donations, and Natividad won the table setting contest. There was a profit of $7,112 for the Food Booth. Sheryl discussed a time card incident for the people that worked in the Dippin Dots booth in which they were compensated by the fairgrounds rather than the Heritage Foundation. The council now has an outstanding bill with the fairgrounds.

Youth Reports/Club Sharing:

Fiona McPherson of Buena Vista shared qualities about her club she enjoys and talked about upcoming fundraisers which included selling baked goods, coffee, and having a family game night.

Alyssa Hurtado of Hilltown talked about her club's upcoming Halloween Party fundraiser and is excited to start planning the Color Me Green run as part of their Council obligation.

Jewel Anthony of Lockwood talked about her club's successful taco night and plans for fun at the beach and in the snow.

Clubs were asked about their community services during the holiday season. Clubs shared their activities of giving to families within their communities using food drives, toy drives, sock drives, etc. Some clubs also enjoyed sending letters to soldiers abroad.

All Star/CTA Report:

Jewel Anthony talked about her body of work which will focus on being a better junior/teen leader.

CTAs Marti, Fiona, and Blake discussed their bodies of work and will be sending out program forms to clubs so they can schedule talks at club meetings.

Kelly Violini and Catherine Miller were absent.

Committee Reports:

Animal Field Day (Chualar): Will be held on January 28th and 29th at LA Hearne locations in King City and Prunedale. Michelle Lindley spoke.

Fantastic Field Day (KCR): Will be held on February 4th and is Cloverbud friendly. Kristen Iverson announced that lunch proceeds will be donated to the summer camp program.
